

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, July 15, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Death penalty divisive

Early book juggling seen

State chiefs note crisis' impact

Execution 'has to be done,' slain trooper's family says

Shows: Congress looking out for WorldCom investors

Jury's still out on Pickering's support of military in state

8 charged with Medicaid fraud

25 banks suing WorldCom

Parchman staffers prep for execution

Ebbers' culpability in question

Editorials

Teddy bear high on lawmakers' list

The Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Execution day nears

Hansen files yet another appeal

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

EDITORIAL: MDA right to seek guarantees from Tishomingo site

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

I don't think you ever forget it

Death chamber ready for first inmate

Corporate scandals shake Main Street as well as Wall Street, governors say

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Meridian Star Meridian, Mississippi

• On corporate responsibility — Lott

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth

State will assume control of Delta Correctional, state senator says

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Tort reform becoming up close and personal

Sid Salter: Hansen's bill for Ladner's death due

Tim Kalich: Another fight over double-dipping
HIV Muppet: Pickering wants age appropriate programs on PBS
CL Notebook: Bryant not in Gov's race; Tuck has B'day; Holland hugs Capps

The New York Times

Medicare Chief: Don't Count on Feds

The Washington Post

Governors Gauge Scandals' Effects

The Washington Times